MOTHER'S DAY

Sunday is Mother's Day. White carnations will be worn in memory of the mothers who cannot look at the lovely flowers with us today. Pink carnations have been ordered for those fortunate enough to have children who not only love, but honor them.

The love for one's mother does not stand alone. It is always accompanied by thoughtfulness, by the kind look, by sympathy, by appreciation of the care and tenderness she has so quietly given through the nights of babyhood, the days of childhood, in the hours of manhood when the council of her heart was given, when the protection of her confidence and encouragement was needed. The mother-love, if the child could only return it! If his heart could go out in forgiveness to all those who hurt him, as a mother's heart is filled with compassion when he hurts and disappoints her. All outbursts of fury would be overlooked—all our best intentions understood, and our hearts would be filled with that compassion that makes our souls rich with love.

Not long ago Father's Day was recognized. He, too, is beginning to share the tender tributes with the mother. The day will soon come when he will no longer be, Daddie, Pard or The Old Man and The Governor. To every son and daughter, he will be, Father, with deepest love and respect.

When will the grand-mothers and grand-fathers come into their own again? How seldom one hears anything of them, except gran-nie, or grand-dad. Sweet memories are those of one's grand-mother who can remember her in the garden by the lilies of the valley, and grand-father carrying his cane and pointing out the way of truth and obedience. May the real grand-mothers and grand-fathers come back to the children of today. May they be honored with loving words and roses.

We announce this week, Arthur Beard as a candidate for sheriff of Breckenridge county subject to the action of the Republican Party Primary election, Aug. 2. Mr. Beard is a fine young man, has had large experience in the sheriff's office, and if elected will make a good sheriff.

An old-fashioned mother, rare in independence and greatly admired, is she who takes her baby to church now-a-days.

Next Thursday night will be the Cloverport High School commencement of the concrete walk.

According to the crop reports, peaches will be in style in Breckenridge county this summer.

There'll be something doing at the County Seat next Monday. Better take a day off and be there.

Mr. Babbage will be in Hardinsburg next Monday. Have your subscriptions ready for him.

Circuit Court convenes at Hardinsburg next Monday. So do the Progressives.

Mr. Sam L. Dent, well-known in this county, died in Louisville last Sunday.

FISCAL COURT.

At a Regular Term of the Breckenridge County Fiscal Court held in and for Breckenridge County at the Court house in Hardinsburg on Tuesday April 1st, 1913

Present Hon. L. L., Judge of the Breckenridge County Court presiding with the following Justices of the Peace, to-wit: G. A. Wright, G. N. Harris, S. H. Dix, S. P. Drury, D. J. Quiggins and B. A. Whittinghill, being all the justices in commission.

In accordance with Chapter 105, Section 1 Acts of 1912, the members of this court think it advantageous to the County to elect a County Treasurer. The name of Wm. Ahl and Paul Compton were put in nomination, and the vote being taken resulted as follows: For Paul Compton 4 votes, for Wm. Ahl 2 votes, Paul Compton having received a majority of the votes was declared elected, and his election is confirmed and made the order of the Court.

On Motion of Justice S. P. Drury seconded by Justice D. J. Quiggins it is ordered that said Treasurer be required to execute bond in the penal sum of $50,000.00 said bond to be approved and accepted by the county Judge.

Came F. E. Yates and in open Court filed a claim in the sum of $60.00 for land taken by reason of a change in the Public County Road over his land, it is ordered that said sum of $60.00 be and the same in allowed to the said F. E. Yates, conditioned on the said F. E. Yates executing to the County a general warranty deed for said land so taken.

Came V. D. Bennett and in open Court asked damages for fence and other inconvenience by reason of a public road being opened through his farm, the Court being advised it is ordered and directed that he be allowed the sum of $25.00 for said damages.

Came George Harned and Pal Garner Commissioners heretofore appointed to view the site for a bridge asked for across Sinking Creek where the same is crossed by the Custer and Rosetta road and filed their report, said commissioners in their report say that a bridge at said point is an urgent need and recommend that said bridge be constructed and that a change in the country road will be necessary as the road where it is located is under the bank of the creek and they recommended in said report that said road be changed to run over the land of G. C. Garner for a distance of 500 or 600 yards. Said Garner agreed to give a 30 foot road without cost to the county. Said report is now ordered filed and it is moved and seconded that said bridge be built and the change is made as recommended by the commissioners, said motion carried and was made the order of the court. The road and bridge Commissioners are ordered and directed to advertise for bids for said bridge for both wood and iron.

The following claims were presented and followed wit:

Announcement

We beg to announce that we have arranged with Mr. R. F. Outcault, creator of the celebrated character "BUSTER BROWN" and the world's highest paid artist, to furnish us each week with a special drawing and advertisement for our Bank. These pictures and ads. will be on this page a long time and we believe will interest and educate both old and young. Getting Mr. Outcault's service cost us no small price, but we did it and feel that the value of his work will justify the expenditure. We invite you to look each week at Mr. Outcault's illustrations.

THE BANK OF HARDINSBURG & TRUST CO. Hardinsburg, Ky.

"Such shipments mean Studebaker has the confidence of the farmer"

Every year over one hundred thousand horse-driven vehicles are sold by Studebaker. Over a million Studebaker vehicles are always in use. Stop and think what that means.

This enormous output means that Farmers—the men who know—depend upon Studebaker wagons to do their work.

And a Studebaker wagon never fails. It is always ready to do a big day's work—and to keep on doing it. There are thousands of Studebaker wagons that have been in service from 20 to 40 years.

A Studebaker wagon is a real business asset. Wheels, body, frame, axles and running gear have been tested and retested by experts. You can buy cheaper wagons but they're not Studebakers, nor will they last like Studebaker wagons.

Whether in city, town or country, for business or pleasure, there is a Studebaker vehicle to meet your requirements. Farm wagons, trucks, contractors' wagons, buggies, surreys, runabouts, pony carriages, business and delivery wagons—each the best of its kind. Studebaker harness also, of every description.
